

3: personal hygiene

teacher's notes

Hang your head in shame if you got any of these wrong. Back to Boot Camp for you!

suggested answers

1) When in the woods, you DO NOT need to wash your hands ...

d. before hugging trees

2) You CANNOT effectively wash your hands with ...

d. shaving cream

3) If you share drink bottles, mugs, spoons or tea-towels, you CANNOT catch ...

d. a sprained ankle

4) It is NOT easier to properly clean billies and fry pans if you ...

d. bung your dishes in the washing machine with your dirty clothes when you get home

5) When in the woods, you will NOT avoid the problem of food “going off” if you ...

d. dial takeaway pizza (just give the grid reference)

6) On an overnight bushwalk, you CANNOT manage without ...

d. a sense of humour

7) At “hard-top” (rooved) camps where there are showers, you should NOT ...

d. jump the queue so that you can use up all the hot water

8) The best way to carry out rubbish is NOT to ...

d. chuck it in a “communal” rubbish bag so that the teachers will have to carry it out

9) When you have a notion to move a motion, DO NOT ...

d. hold on for five days

10) Toilet paper scattered over the ground is a BIG problem, but NOT because ...

d. toilet paper should be recycled